LAUREL OUTSIDERS FIRST

UNEXPECTED WINNERS PREVAIL OVER THE PUBLIC CHOICES IN SEVERAL CASES.

Port Light Proves Best in the Carrollton Handicap and Defeats Crimper—Runes Wins Again—Polonium Takes Race and Changes Owners.

Baltimore, Md., October 10.—Surprises were frequent at Laurel this afternoon, a majority of the winners coming from the ranks of the outsiders. The program was made up of well-matched fields, with the Carrollton Handicap, a dash of three-quarters, as the feature. This race was marred by an accident at the start, which caused two of the dozen starters to be left. Just as the barrier was sprung Marse Henry swerved and hit Ormesdale and the result was that both were left. The winner came from the stable of W. P. Orr, whose Hamburg gelding, Port Light, finishing with a rush, passed the tiring pacemaker in the final eighth and won going away. Crimper, after beginning slowly, finished with a rush and just managed to get up in the final stride to beat Regina by a nose for second place.

Runes, which has regained the good form he displayed early in the year, scored his second victory of the meeting when he won the mile and one-sixteenth handicap. Parrington rode him with good judgment, saving him carefully to the home-stretch, where he went up to the leaders with a rush and in the final quarter drew away into a cantering lead.

The imported colt Polonium changed hands after winning the first race. J. W. Hedrick advanced him from $500 to $1,100 and secured him at that figure.

The riders of Marse Henry and Ormesdale were not held accountable by the starter for being left at the post in the Carrollton Handicap. "It was no fault of the boys," said Mr. Cassidy after the race. "It was simply an accident."

During the entire year starter Cassidy has not imposed a single fine on any of the jockeys, and on only two occasions has he found it necessary to suspend one.

Sprint came out of her race of yesterday in bad condition. While at the post she was kicked just below the hock by Surprising and the wound was an ugly looking one. The filly's injuries are serious enough to throw her out of training for the remainder of the season.

E. Rathman has taken over the management of the apprentice rider B. Kleeger and will in the future make the lad's engagements. Kleeger will accompany Rathman to Cuba. The latter will train a public stable next winter and is gathering a string to ship to Oriental Park.

J. W. Hedrick sold the two-year-old Sky to Emil Herz. Hedrick took the filly out of a selling race yesterday.

Steeplechase jockey N. Kennedy was an arrival from Piping Rock.

C. W. Starr and J. Barry were arrivals from Montreal. Mr. Barry has a useful string of horses here, which include, besides Thornhill, the good-looking two-year-old Lord Fitz Herbert and the three-year-old Wise Man.

The Canadian jumper, Hearts of Oak, which sustained a slight injury while being schooled here a few days ago, is again taking his gallops and will be seen with the colors up shortly.

Stabling has been reserved for the Greentree Stable's Gainer and Hubbub, which are expected to arrive from Piping Rock tomorrow. They will be trained by A. Simons.

Top o' th' Morning stepped on a stone in his race yesterday, which accounted for his lameness after the race. He was still sore this morning, but trainer Shields does not consider his injury of a serious nature.

The E. A. Burke jumpers, Quel Bonheur and Light Arms, formerly trained by Lewis W. Garth, have been turned over to J. P. Mayberry, who will train them in the future.

MORTALITY AMONG FRENCH STALLIONS.

"Le Jockey" announces the death at the Haras du Mesnil of the Duc Decaze's stallion Bachelor's Button. With Elf, Leutel and Retz he is the fourth valuable sire which has died recently. Bred in Ireland in 1899, he was sent to the stud in England by Mr. Sol Joel, and was imported into France in 1911. Shortly afterwards he was sold by his English owner to the Duc Decazes. Owing to the war his produce has not been seen in public in France, but the youngsters are said to give much promise.

THIS YEAR'S HARBOR HILL CUP CONTEST.

Many Eligibles Promise a Big Field of Starters in Thursday's Renewal.

New York, October 10.—What the Lawrence Realization is to three-year-old flat runners the Harbor Hill is to the three-year-olds that race through the field. Established in 1905, the first year there was racing over the Belmont course of the Westchester Racing Association, it has ever since been one of the most coveted of the cross-country fixtures.

This race was made possible by the generosity of Clarence Mackay and he has annually added a prize of $3,000 and a handsome piece of plate for the running. The race itself is named after Mr. Mackay's Long Island estate.

The race was taken over by the Piping Rock Racing Association in 1912, the first season there was racing at the beautiful Locust Valley course and it has been decided continuously there ever since. This year the Harbor Hill will be run Thursday, Columbus Day, and it is certain that the field will be the largest that ever contended for the prize. Secretary Bryan is confident there will be at least a dozen starters.

The first running of the Harbor Hill was won by Delcanta. Then in 1906 T. S. Martin, which went on to be one of the best jumpers of his time, was winner. In 1907 Sandy Creeker won and the following year Thomas Hitchcock's Stokes, also a truly high-class jumper, was the victor. Gwyn Tompkins saddled the 1909 winner when he sent the filly Belle to the post.

The Harbor Hill was not run in 1910 or 1911. In fact there was no racing on the big New York tracks in either 1911 or 1912, but in 1912 the Piping Rock Association, with a fine courage, kept alive the interest in racing by opening up its beautiful course. Mr. Mackay was induced to transfer the Harbor Hill to the new association and it promises to remain a feature there as long as horses are raced at Locust Valley.

For the 1912 running, the initial at Locust Valley, C. R. Fleischmann's George Eno was the winner in a good field. Repentant, racing for Miss E. Randolph, beat the Greentree Stable's Baliet and seven others in the 1913 running, while Joseph E. Davis was winner of the last two runnings of the coveted prize, taking the 1914 race with Single Stick, while he won it last year with Vifir.

Both of these Davis victories came as a surprise for "Miss Chamblet's" Chupadero was looked upon as the best in the race and, after forcing the pace, the Davis gelding, with a ten-pound advantage, beat him a head. Later in the year Chupadero beat Single Stick each time he met him.

Then there was an element of luck in the victory of Vifir last year. Garth, who started Faker in the race, wagered that his horse would beat Al Reeves, the Greentree Stable starter, and the pair of them were raced out together in an effort to decide that wager. The result was that they killed each other off and Faker was beaten by both Vifir and Bill Dudley. Later in the season Bill Dudley took the measure of Vifir

But Mr. Davis is going to try hard and make it three in a row for the big prize. He has three named, The Decision, Brooks and Bryn Chant, and at least two of them will be seen under silks.

Other eligibles for the running Thursday are: Harry La. Montagne's Masterful, F. J. Nolan's Henry Jr., Herbert L. Pratt's Socony, Greentree Stable's Hubbub, Raymond Belmont's Russell Rock, M. L. Schwartz's Ormer's Head and Tres Moutarde, Thomas Hitchcock's Alley and Meadow Brook, Leonard Jacob's King Fortune and Raconteuse, Northwood Stable's Plaintiff and Marchena, G. T. Arnold's Mary Estelle, F. E. Craft's Ojala, John E. Madden's Sea Urchin, Hendrie and Fellowship, H. W. Sage's The Brook, Simon Jones and Jacobus, W. R. Coe's Bet, J. J. Flanagan, Jr.'s Jasper and Jefferson Livingston's First Out.

Thus it will be seen that the Harbor Hill has grown until it is a race of truly national importance. The three-year-olds engaged that have already been raced have shown a quality that will make the field not only the largest but the best that has ever contended for the prize and it is safe to assume that the winner will go on to a brilliant career in 1917.

The Harbor Hill is only one of the good races that will be offered Thursday and a deal of interest is being taken in the Subscription Steeplechase for the older horses. This is under handicap conditions, over the trying three-mile course and it has a value that has attracted the best cross-country horses in training.

The other steeplechase to be decided Thursday is the Brook Champion. It is a two-mile handicap and it has also brought together the best horses of the year.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Reno's show price last Saturday should have read $2.60, not $2.80.

Mose Goldblatt is suffering from an abscess on the knee and uses a cane in walking.

The correct place payoff on Raoul in race 29718 was $5.20, instead of $5.30, as previously printed.

His sisters at Kansas City, Mo., are in anxiety concerning the present location of Mike Garety, who, about a year ago, was working for Davis & Seaman.

The auction of Richard Croker's horses will be held at his place at Glencairn, County Dublin, on October 27, by Messrs. Goff and Co., autioneers to the Irish Turf Club.

Former Senator Johnson N. Camden, chairman of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, is reported to be well on the road to recovery following his recent operation in New York City.

The Latonia meeting started off with the biggest crowd of the fall racing season in Kentucky. Speculation in the mutuels was about twenty-five per cent heavier than it was on the opening day last fall.

Harry Payne Whitney has made arrangements with Charles H. Berryman to keep one stallion and twenty broodmares for him at Mr. Berryman's farm near Lexington, Ky. They will be shipped shortly from Mr. Whitney's Brookdale Farm in New Jersey.

The horse Berrilldon, which ran inconspicuously at Laurel, Monday, was a crack handicap horse in England a few years back and so good that he was able to win the Lincolnshire Handicap of 1913 in a field of twenty-one horses. Cuthbert finished first in the race, but was disqualified for fouling Berrilldon in a close finish.

Two visitors at Latonia Saturday from Detroit were Frank McQueeny, secretary of the Detroit Driving Club, and Fred Postal, a hotel man. The former reported that there is a chance to secure a pari-mutuel bill in Michigan, permitting the operation of the mutuel machines at the State Fair only, and that if the bill goes through, a running meeting will be given in Detroit.

Before the races at Hillcrest on Saturday the horses of Ike Striker were sold at auction and the following prices realized: Rose Oneil, to T. McCarron, $600; Thomas Hare, to Ray Miller, $450; Hasson, to C. W. Otwell, $65; Bon Box, to C. Rowe, $35; Tower, to William Cleland, $240; Sharper Knight, to D. Hill, $10; Hearthstone, to D. Herron, $100; Jimmie Hunt, to D. Hill, $10; George, to D. Hill, gratis. William Walker also sold William W. for $30 to Martin Crews.

KING GEORGE A STEADFAST TURFMAN.

Horses in His Stable Which Have Raced Well for Him and Those Coming On.

One of the few encouraging features in connection with racing during the war has been the continued support of the king, who has set a splendid example to others by showing his approval of the policy of "carrying on." Unfortunately no important prizes have fallen to the royal stable, but it is satisfactory to recall the smart performances of Friar Marcus. After winning all his engagements as a two-year-old the colt cut up disappointingly in the following year and it has since been demonstrated that the handsome son of Cicero does not stay, but it is equally clear that he retains his fine speed and is in the front rank of sprinters. It is also pleasant to record that he is a genuine struggler under difficulties, for there was some doubt as to this until it was discovered that he had been running out of his course. He was early on the warpath this year, as it was at the Newmarket First Spring Meeting that he gave ten pounds to Jameson and fairly worried him out of the Crawfurd Handicap. Sir John Willoughby's horse was in good form then and won at his next attempt, but he has lately developed an awkward temper and is better fitted for the stud than the race course. "The Friar" was set a stiff task in the Bretby Handicap and just failed to concede nineteen pounds to Barbed Wire, but he was in front again for the Chesterfield Handicap at the May meeting, and acquitted himself of a good performance by giving thirteen pounds and a beating to Vanitie. That was his last appearance, but I believe he is to remain in training, and will surely win again next year, although sprint races will then require a lot of winning, with such horses as Phalaris coming on. This is a slashing fine horse, which, in spite of a somewhat delicate constitution and a nervy temperament, possesses terrific speed, is acquring strength with age, and has only to continue well to make up into a champion four-year-old at any distance up to seven-eighths, and perhaps even a mile. Sir Dighton got the Rowley Mile all right when he dead-heated with Roi d'Ecosse for the Craven Stakes, and wants a man on his back, still he will win again, and of the other seniors at Egerton House I think Sammarco and Spey Pearl will pay their way, likewise the two-year-olds Alexander, Llewelyn and Lucknow, all of which are maidens. Neuve Chapelle was, I believe, considered the most promising of the juveniles as a yearling, but this charming daughter of Sunstar has yet to make her first appearance.

Already ten yearlings have been sent from Sandringham to be trained by Marsh, and some others follow next month; thus the Royal string looks like numbering close on thirty horses next year. I have little doubt that details of the youngsters bred at the chief private studs are interesting to the public generally and to breeders in particular, and in this belief I give particulars of the sixteen yearlings from the Royal stud, and it will be noted that their breeding is exceptional. Thus the first consignment from Sandringham include a bay colt, half-brother to Friar Marcus, by Bayardo—Prim Nun; a chestnut colt by Santry—April Princess; a chestnut colt by Marcovil—Princess Dagmar; a bay colt by Trush—Flower Jug; a brown colt by Picton—Vain Air; a grey filly by Roi Herode—Sweet Vernal; a chestnut filly by Sunstar—Princesse de Galles; a bay filly by Sunstar—Glad Tidings; a bay filly by Sunstar—Marie Legrave; a chestnut filly by Marcovil—Guinea Hen; a bay filly by Spearmint—Pintade; a chestnut filly by Thrush—La Marquise; a gray filly by Grey Leg—Zulema; a bay filly by Marcovil—Sweet Alison; a chestnut filly by Marcovil—Persian Lilac; and a bay filly by Thrush—White Heart. Of these I hear that the "paddock" favorites are the Prim Nun, Vain Air, and Princess Dagmar colts, and the Princesse de Galles, Guinea Hen, Glad Tidings, and Pintade fillies, which are favored with good looks and fine movers. It is a popular idea that it is lucky to have a "gray" in the team, and as there are two I hope the superstition will be vindicated as far as Egerton House is concerned.

The Sandringham Stud has had more than its share of bad luck this season, for no fewer than seven out of sixteen mares were barren, namely, Prim Nun, dam of Friar Marcus, to Cicero, now covered by Polymelus; Vain Air, dam of Vervaine, to Polymelus, covered by Picton; Glad Tidings, to Sunstar, to which she returned; Flower Jug, to Spearmint, covered by Lemberg; Eclia, dam of Princesse de Galles, to Sunstar, covered by Cicero; Marie Legrave, dam of Grey Linnet, to Cicero, covered by The Tetrarch; and La Marquise, to Tracery, covered by William the Third. For such mares as these to miss is a great disappointment to Walker, the stud groom, and having regard to the stallions' covering fees the loss to the Royal Exchequer is more than vexatious. The mares in foal are Zulema, with a bay filly by Polymelus, and covered by Lemberg; Saint's Mead, dam of Sammarco, with a bay filly by Sunder and covered by Tracery; April Princess, with a bay filly by St. Denis and covered by him again; Persepolis, with a bay colt by Bayardo and covered by Picton and Willonyx; Witch of the Air, with a bay filly by Valens, and covered by Picton; Guinea Hen, dam of Pintadeau, Anmer, Brakespear and Jungle Cock, with a chestnut filly by Sunder, and covered by Radium; Princesse de Galles, dam of La Marquise, Sir Dighton and Llewelyn, with a filly by Valens, and covered by Sunstar; and Sweet Vernal, with a colt by The Tetrarch, but so late (May 9), that the mare was not served again. Pintade's colt by Lemberg died after living a couple of months, and she was put to him again. To the above foals, of which the Sweet Vernal colt is a real beauty, must be added a chestnut colt by Picton—Princess Dagmar, a bay filly by the same sire—Sweet Alison, and a bay filly by Sunflower II.—White Heart. In contrast to last season's experience, it is satisfactory to hear that all the mares are considered safe in foal, with the exception of Persepolis and Flower Jug, concerning which there is doubt.—"Vigilant" in London Sportsman.

COLIN'S DAM AGAIN CHANGES HANDS.

Lexington, Ky., October 10.—The famous old mare Pastorella, dam of Colin, changed ownership again last week, when she became the property of R. T. Wilson, who purchased her while in Lexington looking over his horses at Kirklevington Farm, along with the Voter mare Spin, from John E. Madden, of Hamburg Place. Both mares are in foal to Hessian and will be mated to Olambala next year. Pastorella, which, by the way, is now twenty-four, was brought to this country by the late Marcus Daly, and secured by James R. Keene at the dispersal sale of the Bitter Root Stud in 1901, for $10,000. She was then in foal to Hamburg, the resultant foal being the bay colt, Strephon. Pastorella remained in Mr. Keene's ownership until the dispersal of the Castleton Stud in September, 1913. She was purchased then by E. R. Bradley, of Idle Hour Stud, for $2,000, it being doubtful whether or not she was in foal. This buy proved a fortunate one for Mr. Bradley, because the next spring Pastorella foaled a colt by Voter, and shortly afterward he sold the mare and foal to Mr. Madden for a price greatly in excess of what he paid for her. Should Mr. Wilson be fortunate enough to secure a foal from Pastorella by Olambala, the breeding will be on similar lines to that of his great colt Campfire, whose dam, Nightfall, is out of the Springfield mare Sundown, while Pastorella is of course by Springfield.

LATONIA CHOICES PREVAIL

VOGUE WINS ALL THE WAY IN THE CHIEF RACE OF THE AFTERNOON.

Hawthorn Takes His Race—Westy Hogan in Front for the First Time Since Last Spring—Prominent Riders Given a Warning.

Cincinnati, O., October 10.—The followers of favorites had a big inning this afternoon when first choices repeatedly came to the finish in advance of the others. The sport was good, with the finishes in some instances particularly close. The best race on the card was the fifth, in which some real good ones met and it resulted in a victory for Gallaher Bros.' Vogue, which led from barrier rise, but had to be ridden out to outstay King Gorin and Star Jasmine, which had been her closest pursuers from the start.

Another interesting race was the third, contested by a band of good two-year-olds. It resulted in the first victory for Westy Hogan that this formerly well regarded youngster has achieved since last spring. There was considerable attention given to Sedan for this race and that colt flattered his backers by racing into a long lead in the first three-eighths, but after rounding into the stretch his stride shortened perceptibly and he was readily overhauled by Westy Hogan and Believe Me Boys, Westy Hogan scoring easily.

The substitute race went to the unruly Sayonarra, which, despite her fractiousness at the post, showed high speed and, leading all the way, won in a canter.

Lady Kathern, by emerging from the maiden class in the opening race, enabled O. A. Bianchi to take his first purse of the meeting. Hawthorn was an outstanding choice for the second race and led for the entire way, with Minstrel nearest at the end.

Following Hawthorn's victory in the second race was an advance from his entered price of $600 to $1,200 by Kay Spence, but his owner retained him with an advance of $5.

Jockey F. Teaham was suspended for four days by the starter for disobedience at the post.

Signorette, McMonde Agne and San Vega from the R. J. Mackenzie stable will be offered for sale by auction on Saturday next. Helen Thompson and Honey Shuck will be offered at the same time.

J. B. Respess has purchased Cardigan and will try to restore him to racing condition.

The withdrawal of Lena Misha from the original fourth race, a handicap at three-quarters, caused the declaring off of that race and secretary J. B. Campbell hurriedly substituted a dash at three-quarters under selling conditions to make up the card of seven races.

Signorette, according to trainer J. D. Adkins, came out of her race in a bad way with a high fever.

Manager Hachmeister is planning for an exceptional program for Thursday, which will be Columbus Day. One thousand of the delegates to the National Laundry convention are expected to be in attendance and the feature race of the day will be designated in their honor.

The stewards had a session with jockey Roscoe Goose before the races and the officials told the rider that they were not satisfied with his work, citing particularly the inconsistent running of Rifle Shooter. He was given to understand that an improvement in his riding was expected with uniform consistency, or he would suffer suspension.

Jockey Buxton, asked to explain World's Wonder's sudden retirement from contention in the sixth race today, said the horse had quit under him when called on. He told trainer Young that he thought the horse had suffered an injury, causing him to take him out of contention.

Sayonarra's bad post behavior caused the stewards to issue a notice that her further entry here would be barred.

Besides issuing the warning to jockey Goose, the stewards had trainer W. Perkins and jockey D. Connelly on the carpet. The former was told that horses under his care must show more consistency in the future and Connelly was warned that his work would be closely watched.

It is the intention of the stewards to give bad acting horses at the post but scant consideration hereafter. After a sufficient trial their entries will be barred.

MORE ABOUT THE DAM OF HURRY ON.

A correspondent sends us some interesting particulars concerning Tout Suite, the dam of Hurry On, which won the September Stakes at Newmarket. She came up as a yearling at the sale of some of Mr. W. F. de Wend-Fenton's horses at Lingfield in November, 1905, and R. Gore, the Fendon trainer, purchased her for 105 guineas on behalf of Mr. W. Murland, the breeder of Hurry On. At the time she was more like a perfectly-made thoroughbred pony than anything else, and, on seeing her at Findon, Mr. Murland was rather disappointed with his bargain and decided to send her to Ireland. On the County Meath grass she developed into quite a "big little 'un," and when she foaled Hurry On in 1913 measured just under fifteen hands. She was barren the two following seasons and died soon afterwards.—London Sportsman.

NOTES OF THE TURF FROM OTHER LANDS.

Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt has leased his stallion Oversight to M. Wattinne.

The king of Spain has entered Antivari and Inkerman for the coming selection trials at Moulins, France.

Sunfire, formerly the property of Mr. J. B. Joel, and purchased by Mr. Clarence Hailey for Mr. G. Golculass, was a recent winner in India.

England's leading rider, S. Donoghue, having obtained total exemption, leaves on November 15 for South Africa, where he will ride for Mr. Sol Joel.

Capt. Selwood Tanner, son of Capt. Ernest Tanner, the well-known Newmarket owner and breeder, has been wounded at the front, and is at present in a hospital in France.

The report that Baron Maurice de Rothschild has sold his stallion Arc de Triomphe for abroad is incorrect. Arc de Triomphe has been leased to Mr. J. D. Cohn, and will be located at the Haras de Chamant.

Mr. Depledge, a wealthy English sportsman, has decided to race on an extensive scale in Ireland, and he is sending over from England several horses which will be trained by R. Fetherstonhaugh, J. Burns and J. A. B. Trench.

If. Leader has recently bought for abroad the following horses—Louvre, Fleullen, Queen's Highway filly, Princess Sonia filly, East Green filly, and Pique Dame filly, and with the exception of Fluellen, all have been sent to Spain.

The Dunedin (New Zealand) Jockey Club's total revenue from gate money and privileges during the past season was about $27,000, and yet, after paying the government $21,760 in taxation, it was able to distribute over $74,700 in prize money.

Lord George Dundas, the younger son of the Marquis of Zetland, trained a few horses at Newmarket before the war, but he then took up flying. From an observer he became a flying officer, and now he has been promoted to the rank of flight-commander.

Word has been received that the cross-country jockey, Leslie Cartledge, who was engaged in the stables of the Flemington (Australia) trainers, H. Harrison and E. Finn, for some years, and who was a member of the Expeditionary Force, has died from wounds received at the front.

Mr. Martin Maddock, the bloodstock exporter, purchased some time ago from Mr. J. J. Parkinson the crack Irish two-year-old of last season, Offaly. He has just received information that the horse has won the Grand Prize of Brazil, beating the best Argentine representatives.

The Irish St. Leger was first run for last year, when La Poloma, trained by James Dunne, was successful, and this year the veteran trainer supplied the winner in Captive Princess, which also secured the Irish Oaks. Dunne is the oldest practicing trainer in Ireland, and had his first mount as long ago as 1853.

The super-Premium stallion, Wisemac, and St. Neots (by Isinglass—St. Neophyte) were shipped from England recently, but the vessel was detained in port for several days. She got away in due course, and on September 2 a wire was received announcing her arrival at a Rusian port, with the horses in good condition.

Mr. Jack Joel was not present at Newmarket to see North Star win the big nursery. While recognizing the colt had a chance, he did not desert Austin Friar's for Newmarket. It cartainly is remarkable that Mr. Joel should have had to wait so long for a victory after enjoying so many years of good fortune, on several occasions heading the list of successful owners.—London Sporting Life.

The Earl of Essex, one of the stewards of the English Jockey Club, died of heart failure September 25. He was a popular turfman in flat racing and steeplechasing alike. The late Earl, who was born in 1857, and succeeded to the title on the death of his grandfather in 1892, served with the Imperial Yeomanry in South Africa, and was a colonel in the Herts Imperial Yeomanry. He was twice married and is succeeded by his son, Viscount Malden.

Not content with having run first and second for the Grand Prix de San Sebastian on the opening day of that meeting on July 2, Mr. J. D. Cohn, after winning many races in the interim, has now run first, second and third for the St. Leger of $4,000. Teddy, with which he also carried off the more valuable Grand Prix, was the winner Sunday, September 17, followed home by his stable companions, Rabanito and Bobino. On the same day Mr. Cohn's trainer, R. Denman, saddled two other winners in Renard Bleu and Crow Prince.

Mr. James Buchanan was not present to see Hurry On win the September Stakes, being in Scotland. Hurry On was bred by Mr. W. Murland, one of the stewards of the National Hunt, and as a yearling cost 500 guineas. It is said to be a fact that Mr. Buchanan has never seen the colt. Various friends, who were present, having regard to Mr. Buchanan's long and costly pursuit of classic honors, sent him telegrams of congratulation. It will make no difference to this excellent sportsman that the September Stakes fails to obtain recognition from the Doncaster people as a substitute for their own race, the St. Leger.

LEADING TWO-YEAR-OLDS OF MANY YEARS.

Campfire is not only the leading money-winning two-year-old of 1916, but he is also the winner of the greatest aggregate of money, to the credit of any horse of any age in our racing in any year since 1910. Although there is plentiful racing to come before the end of this year, there is no chance that any horse engaged in it can even closely approach his total. He will race no more in 1916 and his good record for the year is complete.

The record of the winnings of the chief American two-year-olds of each year since Sensation first touched the $20,000 mark in 1879, is as follows:

NASSOVIAN'S CESAREWITCH WEIGHT.

Among the other Cesarewitch candidates Mr. Sanford's good three-year-old, Nassovian, has been backed recently in a number of "doubles" with horses in the Cambridgeshire. The long race is one in which many three-year-olds in the past have gained distinction, and, as a matter of fact, no fewer than thirty-five colts and fillies of that age have triumphed out of a total of seventy-six races. In other words, young 'uns have won almost half of the total number of races for the Cesarewitch. Whether Nassovian is within measurable distance of St. Gatien, however, remains to be seen. The last-named colt galloped to victory in 1884 under 122 pounds, and, according to his owner, the late Mr. "Jack" Hammond, he would probably have won almost as easily as he did had he been weighted at 133 pounds. All the same, Nassovian has been allotted the substantial weight, for a colt of his age, of 118 pounds, and were he to win he would rank as the next best three-year-old winner of the race after St. Gatien, with the solitary exception of Robert the Devil, which, in 1880, carried to victory precisely the same burden as that now allotted to Mr. Sanford's son of William the Third and Veneration II. Robert the Devil, however, had better public credentials than Nassovian, for he was undoubtedly the unluckiest horse in the world to be beaten by Bend Or for the Derby, and before winning the Cesarewitch he had simply romped home for the St. Leger from Lord Rosebery's filly, Cippolata, which, subsequently, at an advantage of seven pounds, was beaten more easily than before in the Cesarewitch. Up to the present the most heavily-weighted three-year-old winners of the big handicap, with the exception of St. Gatien and Robert the Devil, are Faugh a Ballagh (1844) and Julius (1867), each of which carried 112 pounds to victory. From this it will be seen that Nassovian is set no mean task.—"Vigilant" in London Sportsman.

EPSOM DERBY'S OF A HUNDRED YEARS.

Incidents Attending the Running of the Most Famous Race of the World.

(Fourteenth Article).

The late Duke of Westminster won the Derby on four occasions, and there are those who believe that but for the mysterious illness of Orme in 1892 the total of wins would have been five. It was with a son of Orme that the Duke scored his final success in 1899, the colt to so distinguish himself being Flying Fox. Like his Grace's three previous Derby winners, Flying Fox was bred at Eaton, his dam being a Galopin mare named Vampire.

Flying Fox ran five times as a two-year-old, winning three of his races. He made a triumphant debut in the New Stakes at Ascot, in which he was attended home by Musa, the Oaks winner of a twelvemonth later. Following this he defeated his only opponent in the Stockbridge Foal Stakes. He was not again seen out until the autumn, when he was beaten by a head by St. Gris in the Imperial Produce Stakes at Kempton Park, while he was also defeated by Caiman in the Middle Park Plate. He, however, recovered some of his prestige by easily winning the Dewhurst Plate, with which his season's labors ended.

Flying Fox took the first opportunity of avenging his defeat by Caiman, this occurring in the Two Thousand, in which the Duke's colt beat the Middle Park Plate winner by two lengths. As a consequence, Flying Fox became a pronounced favorite for the Derby, odds of 5 to 2 having to be laid on. The greatest danger was anticipated from Holocauste, a gray colt owned by M. de Bremond.

There were only a dozen runners, but the starter had some difficulty in dealing with them. Eventually they were got away, and they had not gone far before the "Frenchman," which was ridden by Sloan, went to the front, though Flying Fox was close up. Nearing Tattenham Corner, the Kingsclere champion drew level, and a little later took the lead. There seemed every prospect of an interesting finish between the pair, and there was consternation when the gray faltered and then fell. The path was, of course, cleared for Flying Fox, which finally won easily by a couple of lengths from Damocles, with the 50 to 1 chance, Innocence, third. It was soon discovered that Holocauste had broken a fetlock and he was shot on the course. Sloan's opinion was that his mount had the race won when the mishap occurred; but that is a point that must ever remain unsolved.

There was no stopping Flying Fox hereabouts, and in turn he won the Princess of Wales' Stakes and the Eclipse Stakes. After these successes he took part in the St. Leger, in which he again met his old opponent, Caiman. The American was not without his admirers, but Flying Fox was an odds-on favorite and defeated Caiman with the greatest ease. He then competed in the Jockey Club Stakes, in which he was again successful. Flying Fox did not run again, the death of his owner bringing his career to an early close. When the Duke's horses later came up for sale the son of Orme was secured by M. E. Blanc for 37,500 guineas, and the purchaser had no reason for regret, as Flying Fox more than justified himself when he entered upon stud life.

One "triple crown" winner was immediately followed by another—viz., Diamond Jubilee, owned by the late King Edward. Diamond Jubilee was bred at Sandringham, and was a son of St. Simon out of that phenomenally successful matron Perdita II. He was thus brother to Florizel II. and Persimmon. The colt did not greatly distinguish himself in his juvenile days. He commenced by running unplaced to Democrat in the Coventry Stakes at Ascot, while he gave a splendid exhibition of how not to do it in the July Stakes, in which he ran last of six. He displayed more kindliness at Goodwood, where he ran second to Epsom Lad, while at his fourth attempt he obtained a bracket by beating Paigle and others in the Boscawen Stakes. He subsequently ran second in both the Middle Park and Dewhurst Plates, Democrat being his conqueror in each instance.

In his two-year-old days Diamond Jubilee had been ridden by Mornington Cannon and John Watts, to neither of whom did he take a violent fancy. On the other hand, Herbert Jones, then comparatively unknown, could get along quite well with the royal colt, and it was consequently decided to entrust the handling of Diamond Jubilee to the last-named rider. The first fruits of the combination was a runaway victory in the Two Thousand, for which both Elopement and Sailor Lad were preferred.

The son of St. Simon, however, had all his work cut out to beat Chevening in the Newmarket Stakes, but he nevertheless started favorite for the Derby, the odds against him being 6 to 4, second in request being Forfarshire, which had run well in his first season. It is worthy of note that this was the first Derby started with the "gate." Chevening and Forfarshire were the leaders in the early stages; but when the mile post had been reached Diamond Jubilee had improved his position. On entering the straight the American colt Disguise II. took up the running, but in assuming the lead he interfered with Forfarshire and others, Sir T. Dewar's colt's chances being seriously prejudiced. Diamond Jubilee led at the distance, and in the end won by a half length from the Duke of Portland's Simon Dale, Disguise II. filling third position. As was only to be expected, there were enthusiastic scenes when the number of Diamond Jubilee was hoisted, though there was not quite the same amount of "mafficking" as when Persimmon won.

The following month Diamond Jubilee ran second to Merry Gal in the Princess of Wales' Stakes, but subsequently won both the Eclipse Stakes and the St. Leger. He could only run third in the Jockey Club Stakes, while as a four-year-old he was unsuccessful in the whole of the three races in which he competed. After his racing career had closed he stood for a few years at Sandringham, but was later purchased by an Argentine sportsman for 30,000 pounds.
